Well, next Thursday is Thanksgrubbing Day.

It is now said there is graft in the digging up of the streets of New York. Strange how graft is being unearthed everywhere.

President Roosevelt once favored a sea-level canal and now he is in favor of a lock canal. Congress holds the key to the situation.

The Sultan of Turkey, of course, is ready with his song and dance when the united fleets of the Powers arrive in the Dardanelles and begin to act in concert.

It is stated that the "New England yarn output has been the largest in years." Well, the output is large everywhere when men get to accounting for their weaving ways.

The election cartoons pictured President Roosevelt as having something in the way of teeth. He now has tusks—thanks to Menelik, of Abyssinia, who sent them as a present from his royal highness.

The chief of police of Cincinnati boasts that if the Rev. Sam Jones goes there he will "muzzle him." If the chief attempts it there will be a sight of fun seeing Sam jump down the chief's throat with his muzzle on.

Congressman Blackburn, "the only Republican Congressman in North Carolina," is engaged in a fight to compel some other leaders to recognize that he is at least one of the leaders. He is determined to have a finger in the pie.

The encampment site goes to Morehead. Did any one in Wilmington really think it would come here? You see, the common soldiers had no voice in the matter, although an overwhelming majority of them favored Wrightsville.

—Rev. Will B. Oliver announced to the congregation of the First Baptist church at Florence Sunday that he had decided to remain as their pastor and will not accept the call to his home church at Mount Olive. —The revival at Brooklyn Baptist church continues with great interest. Services are held each afternoon at 3 o'clock and evenings at 7:30 o'clock. The pastor is being assisted by Rev. W. A. Ayers, of Newbern, an eloquent and able preacher of the gospel, who is attracting large congregations. Sunday night there were 16 additions to the membership of the church and eight last night.

SAD DEATH AT WARSAW.

Miss Mary Boyette Developed Violent Idiosyncrasy For Anti-Toxin.

Friends in this city learned yesterday with great sorrow of the death of Miss Mary Boyette, which occurred rather suddenly at 10:45 o'clock yesterday morning at the home of her mother, Mrs. M. E. Boyette, in Warsaw. Miss Boyette was a teacher in the new graded school at Magnolia but last week the school suspended because of an epidemic of some throat trouble among the students. Miss Boyette returned to her home at Warsaw and Sunday night had an attack of something like that with which her pupils had been suffering. A physician called to see her Sunday and again yesterday morning when the anti-toxin treatment was given as a precaution against possible diphtheria. Miss Boyette seemed to have an idiosyncrasy for the drug and she died very soon of failure of the heart.

Besides her mother, the young lady, who reached her 25th birthday on the day of her death, is survived by two sisters, Miss Louise Boyette, a student at the State Normal, in Greensboro, and Miss Virginia Boyette, of Warsaw. An only brother was killed about 18 months ago as the result of falling from an express car at or near Petersburg, Va. Friends of the young woman and the family extend their sincerest sympathy to the bereaved ones. The funeral will be conducted at Warsaw to-day upon the arrival of the sister from the State Normal College.

Robertson and the devotional exercises will be conducted by Rev. James Carmichael, D. D., chaplain of the lodge. The Mozart Brass Quartette from Hollowbush's Orchestra and a company of talented singers, including Miss Mattie Horne, Mrs. J. D. Smith, Messrs. Herbert K. Holden and R. F. Fowler, with Miss Anna Sprunt, accompanist, will contribute the musical features. Exalted Ruler T. B. Carroll will preside over the ceremonials of the lodge and the annual offering for charity will be received. The ushers will be Dr. John C. Wessell, Messrs. F. N. Pinner, Moses Bear, Mark Thomas, H. MOREHEAD GETS CAMP

ANNOUNCEMENT YESTERDAY

Trackage, Bathing Facilities and Rifle Range the Leading Points—State's Revenue From Liquor—Robesonian Publishing Company.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 27.—The military committee selects Morehead as the site for the permanent camp ground for the North Carolina National Guard and Governor Glenn will to-morrow issue an order designating Morehead as the site for this purpose. The committee in an elaborate report to the Governor sets out the following reasons for the selection of Morhead instead of Wilmington:

First.—The site at Morehead presents a frontage adequate for the needs; is of such an area in such a shape as best suits the purpose, while that at Wrightsville, though containing about the same acreage, is in such a shape that it is impracticable to make it conform to the needs. The frontage is but 1,400 feet or thereabouts.

Second.—At Morehead the railroad tracks run through the site affording an easy means of entraining and detraining the troops, handling baggage and quartermasters' stores, whereas at Wrightsville the site is located a considerable distance from the railroad, rendering the use of a large number of teams necessary, an occasion of delay and cost.

Third.—Still water bathing facilities at Morehead are practically at the feet, available at no cost to the men while at Wilmington the exercise of this function requires travel by rail to the beach where the sea and sound are reached.

Fourth.—The proposed location of the target range at Morehead is near the camp and suitable to use; at Wilmington the hammocks are reached only by travel, and in our judgment, is impracticable. Suitable target range to meet the requirements is not available at or near Wrightsville in connection with the camp site offered.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 27.—Reports received in the office of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction show that during 1904 the State educational fund received from liquor licenses issued in the State, $67,836.52; from dispensaries, $19,557.33, a total of $87,443.85. And that in 1905 the receipts were $53,778.75 from liquor licenses and $78,232.94 from dispensaries, giving a total of $132,011.69 for the year. This comparison shows a decrease of $14,107.77 in saloon licenses, an increase of $58,675.61 in dispensary receipts, or a grand total of $44,556.84 in the total receipts of 1905 over 1904 for the school fund from these sources.

The Secretary of State charters the Robesonian Publishing Co., of Lumberton with $25,000 capital authorized, and $3,500 subscribed by J. G. McCormick, E. J. Britt and J. P. Stansel. The company will purchase the Robesonian, a semi-weekly paper established in 1870.

WERE HERE LAST WEEK.

Mrs. Harrison, Victim of New York Auto Accident Visited Here.

People read with horror in Sunday morning's papers of the killing of Mrs. Francis Burton Harrison in an automobile accident in New York Saturday, but there were few who read the shocking intelligence and knew that only a week before the tragedy Mrs. Harrison and her husband, the distinguished Congressman from New York, were guests in Wilmington. Accompanied by Mr. Kenneth Murchison, of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison spent two days of the previous week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Sprunt and subsequently were guests of Mr. Murchison at The Orton plantation, down the river. From Wilmington Mr. and Mrs. Harrison and Mr. Murchison went to Georgetown, S. C., near which place Mr. Harrison is a member of a prominent hunting club. The news came to Mr. and Mrs. Harrison's friends here with painful sorrow, Mr. Sprunt expressing his deep regret at the fearful tragedy and tender sympathy for the sorely bereaved husband. Mr. Harrison is among the most prominent men in New York State and is prominently spoken of for Governor in the next election.

THE SUNDAY STAR.

Although it appeared without previous announcement, the six-page Sunday edition of The Morning Star was an instant success. This improvement has been in contemplation some time, but the increase of business in our advertising department made the change necessary earlier than expected.

The enlargement to six pages—16 columns additional—will give fifty per cent. more space for advertisements and reading matter in the Sunday edition, and as soon as plans already formulated are carried out the Sunday issue will be a very attractive paper.

Advertisers will find it a most valuable medium through which to reach buyers, not only in the city, but throughout this section of the two Carolinas.

No other newspaper can be compared with The Morning Star in the thoroughness with which it covers the territory commercially tributary to Wilmington.

SERGEANT KING'S ACUMEN.

Lost Tot at Police Station Returned to Its Home.

A pretty, blue-eyed little lass, not over four years of age, sat in one of the arm chairs at the police station and amused herself for more than an hour yesterday afternoon by tasting first one and then another of a half a dozen sticks of "ring-streaked" candy which she held in a paper bag in her lap. Vainly did the officers about the hall and several children, who came in to get vaccinated, coax the little one to tell her name and where she lived, but the child was too much taken up with her candy and her new surroundings to answer more than indifferently about herself, whence she came or whither she was going. She was found on the sidewalk at Ninth and Dock streets a little while before, and was wandering aimlessly about as happy as a lark apparently, when some one came by and saw that she was lost and in danger of harm in the street unless some older person was present to look after her. Inquiry was made at several residences in the neighborhood, but no one knew anything of the child. Of course, it would not do to leave the tot there, so a young man volunteered to take her to the City Hall and another bought for her the candy with which she made merry while the officers coaxed and coaxed the truant to tell her name. She would answer with equal enthusiasm that Tom Brown or Jim Jones was her father and replied yes when asked if her name was any of the several that the blue eyes and curly locks suggested to the policemen, who continually plied her with questions in an endeavor to establish her identity.

Finally when all other means had failed, Sergeant Ben King, who is something of a student of human nature, backed off and took a discriminating look at the child. Then he popped his finger and went to the telephone. "Yes, Mr. Bob Pendergraft's baby was missing and they are looking for it everywhere," came back the reply. Mr. Pendergraft lives on Eighth between Queen and Wooster, and a little brother of the tot with the candy was soon at the City Hall and bore his little sister off triumphantly. Sergeant King had sized up the child exactly right. It had wandered off from home for the house of a relative and had been lost.

CLUBBED MULE WITH AXE.

Inhuman Act of Brutal Negro Who Should Be Arrested.

Way out on Nixon street where its extension becomes the Castle Haynes turnpike, Policemen John R. Sneeden and J. R. Minshew were called during he early hours of Sunday morning to witness the result of the brutal treatment of a mule by a negro for whose capture and conviction the county could well afford to pay a reward. About 2:30 o'clock Sunday morning a colored man named Howell was called up by a negro who wanted to borrow an axe, as he said, to fix a cart. Howell loaned the axe but not hearing any driving on a cart, his suspicious were aroused and going to the door, he heard a dull thud as if some human was being struck. At the approach of Howell, the negro dropped the axe and ran. Going to the scene the owner of the axe found the mule down, his forehead and the back of an ear beaten into almost a pulp. The matter was reported to the officers named and they managed to get the wounded animal up and bring him down to Orrell & Alexander's stable where it is being given veterinary attention. The mule is said to belong to a negro named Carter, at Rocky Point, and that it was made to suffer the clubbing in the head because the fiend with the axe had a grudge against the owner. The mule and a cart are said to have been stolen from the Front street market house Saturday night. The negro who did the clubbing has not been arrested. The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals could not accomplish more in a year than to bring this negro to justice.

MONDAY'S MUNICIPAL COURT.

Rock Quarry Arrangement Has Deterrent Effect Upon Law Breakers.

The police court yesterday was rather quiet for a Monday session. The arrangement by the Mayor to work convicts at the quarry and the need of labor there just at present evidently has a deterrent effect on law-breakers.

Joseph Reed and Jake Freeman, a couple of white men picked up by Policeman C. E. Wood at Front and Princess streets yesterday morning, on a charge of vagrancy, satisfied the Mayor they were in earnest search of legitimate employment and were discharged. Richard Simmons, disorderly conduct, was fined $5 and costs. Ed. Lucas, for the same offence, but not so aggravated, was let down with the costs. Samuel Hawkins, whose disorder had the element of drunkenness in it, was fined $5 and costs. Mary Carter, disorderly conduct, was taxed $5, including costs.

Leonard Johnson, disorderly conduct at Fourth and Harnett streets, was represented by Thos. D. Meares, Jr., Esq., and was fined $10 and costs. His attorney took an appeal to the Superior Court. Bond was fixed at $50.

An Approaching Marriage.

Invitations have been sent to friends outside the city to the marriage of Miss Mary Alice Thompson, niece of Dr. A. D. McDonald, and Mr. Cecil P. Southerland, of Hickory, N. C., on the 14th of December, at the residence of the bride's pastor, Rev. Dr. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church.

At St. James' Tea to-night,
A Pumpkin Pie will be insight,
Filled with plums, so odd and queer,
You ne'er could guess what you'll find there.
For a nickel each may try,
To see if luck will pass them by,
Or, if by pulling on the strings,
Good luck to them a present brings.

MAN HIT BY TRAIN

ON SMITH'S CREEK BRIDGE

Mangled Remains Found By Track Early Sunday Morning—Queer Case That Comes From Carolina Beach.

The fearfully mangled remains of Oscar Johnson, a middle-aged white man, an inmate of the County Home, were found beside the railroad track, just on the other end of Smith's Creek bridge, early Sunday morning. Johnson had been struck most probably by the outgoing northbound train Saturday night and was without a doubt killed instantly. His head was split open, the eyes knocked from their sockets and the man's brains scattered along the track for some distance with here and there a fragment of the skull. The gruesome discovery was made early Sunday morning by some A. C. L. yardmen and Mr. B. F. Turlington, who keeps the pest house in the vicinity. The coroner viewed the remains and finding it a clear case of accident, turned the remains over to the county undertaker for burial.

Johnson was a paralytic and was quite well known all over the South, his latter years having been spent in going from town to town and picking up here and there what he could. He was a native of Wilmington and in his younger days was a machinist in the old Wilmington and Weldon railroad shops in this city. When he was paralyzed, a roving disposition took possession of him and he was off and on at Wilmington for a few weeks at a time each year or two. His last visit here was about two months ago and he manifested a desire to lead a more quiet life for the rest of his time. He was admitted to the County Home, but had his liberty and frequently came to town. Saturday night he was here, bought a few articles, had a shave in a North Fourth street barber shop and took the railroad track back to the County Home. It is presumed that he either sat down on the edge of the cross-ties to rest or the train caught him just before he could get to the mainland to leave the bridge.

Johnson had been married and once lived here but no trace of his family could be found except it was known that he had a grown son somewhere in Georgia. He is said to have been 66 years of age, though in appearance, he was much younger. On his visits to Wilmington, Johnson slept at the station house and was quite well known to the police.

Case at Carolina Beach.

Coroner Bell was summoned Saturday to go to Federal Point township, about two and one-half miles this side of Carolina Beach, where the body of an old colored man, named Charles Smith, had been found in the woods some distance from any place of habitation. Dr. Bell found that the clothes of the old man had been burned off him and that was clearly the cause of death. Smith lived alone in a hut on the seacoast and was a recluse. No one seemed to know when he came in the community nor from whence he came. He had nothing to do with the people of either race and his presence was a superstition among the negroes. Near where his body was found, there were signs that he had been cutting wood in an old field and had built a fire on the ground to keep warm by and to roast potatoes, which appeared to be his principal article of diet. There was no suspicion of foul play and the body was buried by the county.

Coast Line Officials Here.

Mr. Henry Walters, chairman of the Board of Directors; President T. M. Emerson, Mr. Waldo Newcomer, of Baltimore, General Manager W. N. Royall and other prominent officials of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company returned Sunday in two private cars, attached to the afternoon train, from an official inspection of the Second Division of the system, following the annual meeting last week in Richmond and the meeting of the C. & W. C., at Charleston, S. C. The party went down to the Sound in the afternoon, but returned and spent yesterday at headquarters here. Mr. Newcomer, however, returned to Baltimore Sunday night.

Hats Off to The Independent!

Our "next-door" neighbor The Independent, places us under all sorts of obligations for the following neat compliment so neatly expressed: "It was entirely unnecessary for our morning contemporary, 'The Star' to attempt any apology for deficiencies that appeared in yesterday's Sunday edition. It was undoubtedly in typographic appearance, in the collection and careful placing of the news items, as well as the clippings, one of the handsomest papers ever given to the public in Wilmington. Such energy, such progress deserves and will meet with success."

Part of Foot Mashed.

Friends of Capt. D. C. DeVane will learn with regret of a painful accident which befel him last Thursday at Teacheys, on the W. & W. Railroad, while cars were being shifted. After signaling the engineer to go ahead his foot slipped and was caught under the wheel, mashing it so that it was necessary to amputate part of the foot. He is now in the James Walker Memorial Hospital and is improving rapidly.

Remains Laid to Rest Here Instead of Southport—Services.

The remains of young J. Clem Wescott, whose sad and tragic death occurred last week at Pensacola, Fla., arrived here Sunday by way of the Seaboard Air Line and were conveyed to the home of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Wescott, No. 211 South Fourth street. NATIONAL STOCK PLEASED.

Week of Repertoire Inaugurated at Academy Last Night.

The National Stock Company opened its popular price engagement at the Academy last night. The bill was "The Queen of Hearts," and it was something new to the local stage. It was well presented and splendidly received. The dramatic situations were strong, the comedy rich and the cast did fine work. Miss Mina Gennell was the star and she twinkled merrily. Her work in the play and also in the vaudeville programme was clever. The specialties were crisp and fresh and scored heavily with the audience and this particular audience was one that filled every seat and stood up.

"The Shadows of Sin" is the bill announced for to-night. A line of new specialties will be introduced. Thursday afternoon a special Thanksgiving Day matinee will be given.

The Carolina Truckers' Colony,

Incorporated.

PROPERTIES AT ABBOTTSBURG, N. C.

Branch Offices at

Wilmington and Goldsboro, N. C.

This Company, recently incorporated under the laws of the State of North Carolina, owns 5,000 acres of the finest trucking lands in the Eastern part of this State.

These lands are located at Abbottsburg, in Bladen and Columbus Counties, on both sides of the Seaboard Air Line Railroad, between Wilmington and Hamlet, in the famous Chadbourn section, where land is selling at from $100 to $300 per acre.

Our engineerers are now at work surveying and plotting this land into town lots and truck gardens, which will be placed on the market for sale just as soon as the work is completed. Plans have been made for locating here the very best and most desirable settlers from the North and Northwest, satisfactory Railroad arrangements for this purpose having already been obtained.

Expert examination of this large body of land, located so advantageously, and the opinion of the best authorities secured upon the undoubted success of the enterprise, warrant us in making the statement that we are affording a great opportunity to our stockholders for investment, while also providing unprecedented facilities for the farmer looking for an ideal home, where the finest strawberries are grown, and all the various early vegetables and truck, as well as staple crops are raised to the greatest advantage; quick Railroad transportation to the Northern markets, the very best service in this respect having been guaranteed us.

We will be glad to have you make a personal visit to Abbottsburg and carefully investigate our holdings; our superintendent, Mr. R. C. Parvin, is on the field and will meet you there and take pleasure in showing you over the properties.

The gain in new building and industry in North Carolina is greater than at any period in the State's history. The North Carolina Home Insurance Company, of Raleigh, N. C., should receive its proposition of this prosperity as compared with the percentage of new business given to it in periods of less industrial activity. Give it the insurange on the desirable new properties you have to offer. It will help to build up our home State and continue the great era of prosperity now enjoyed by our people.

WILLIAM H. BERNARD.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Tuesday Morning, Nov. 28.

THE EFFACEMENT OF CONGRESS.

The New York Times of Sunday contained a very pertinent editorial on the above subject, and among those quoted in connection with the matter is North Carolina's senior Senator, Hon. Furnifold Simmons. The editorial is quite a lengthy one, but it is well to quote this much of it:

"Under the present Administration it is the rule and practice that corruption, frauds, and embezzlements in the Executive Departments shall be investigated by the departments themselves under the direction of the President. Congress, without the will to assert its privilege and do its duty, without the courage to resist Mr. Roosevelt, complacement, supine, nerveless, humbly taking orders from the White House, permits the dangerous practice to continue. Borrowing a precept from the utterances of the 'stand-patters,' who continually insist that the tariff must be reformed only by its friends, the Administration seems to have established the principle that thievery shall be investigated by the thieves, or, at least, only by those whose negligence made the stealing possible.

"Will Congress permit the Isthmian Canal Commission to inquire into and report upon its own expenditure of the public funds without warrant of law? Or will the House or the Senate order an inquiry to be made into the reckless and culpable action of the Commission in running up bills and incurring obligations far in excess of the appropriation at its disposal? The Commission stretches forth its hand to Congress for more money. It is not a recommendation, it is not a request, it is not an appeal. It is a command. Give us $16,000,000, says the Commission, and $3,000,000 of it we must have at once. As for the other $13,000,000 you can have a little time. Then comes the explanation that there are bills to be met, there are laborers to be paid, and there are the salaries of the Commissioners and their expensive staff. If the money is not available before Dec. 15, the laborers cannot be paid, and no end of trouble will result. This is a threat to Congress. We suppose Congress will appropriate the necessary sum for immediate needs, and, of course, nobody has any idea that the Commissioners will suffer for their violation of the statute forbiding expenditure in excess of appropriation.

"But will Congress let the Commission go on in this lawless way, or will it order an inquiry that will put before the people the truth about the canal work—we may say, about the canal scandal, for it has come to the proportions of a scandal. Secretary Taft says that he expects an investigation."

The above and a great deal more was strongly set out by the Times, and it is a timely discussion by a great newspaper that is the champion of the people—a champion of the right. As the representatives of the sovereign States the Congressmen have the right to declare for a Congressional investigation but getting it is another thing. The majority of that body is composed of the President's party and if they are content to allow executive investigations only, it will be the will of Congress.

It is a dangerous precedent for Congress to set to allow the executive departments to usurp or be permitted to exereise functions that clearly belong to Congress, and we are glad to note that the Democrats are on record against it. The Times quotes from the record, and among the Democrats quoted on the subject are Senator Carmack, of Tennessee, and Senator Simmons of our State.

On Jan. 6th, last, Senator Carmack said during the proceedings of the Senate:

"It seems a very strange principle to me to announce that we can only have an investigation of the Executive Departments conducted by themselves. If that is to prevail, if every charge of wrong-doing, corruption, and malfeasance made against any of the Executive Departments of the government is to be investigated only by the Executive Departments of the government, it will not be many years until every Department in the City of Washington will be a stench in the nostrils of the people. The only safeguard is to have a thorough investigation by committees of the Executive Departments and not leave the Executive Departments to investigate themselves, and to be the only witnesses with respect to charges of fraud and corruption."

On the next day Senator Simmons said:

"Money appropriated by Congress and dedicated to a specific purpose has been wasted, has been squandered, has been extravagantly expended, has been misappropriated, has been misapplied, diverted from the uses to which it was dedicated; and now, Mr. President, are we to tell the American people, whose representatives we are, who have put us in charge of this money, and who have also provided in their constitution that no money shall be drawn from the Treasury except by virtue of an express appropriation by Congress—shall we say to the American people, in view of these facts, when their money has been squandered and wasted and misappropriated, that we feel no duty, that we feel no obligation to make an investigation ourselves? * * * Shall we say to them that, though there is a duty devolving upon us to inquire into these misuses of their money, we will surrender, we will abdicate that duty in favor of a subordinate department of the government, and that department of the government, the one which has been charged with wasting and squandering it?"

The Times remarks that Senator Simmons "stated the matter with perfect precision," and asks "Will Congress abdicate?"

We remember that at the last session it did abdicate, for when the Democrats demanded a Congressional investigation of the scandals in the Postoffice Department, the Republican majority abdicated.

KEEP YOUR MONEY AT HOME

Keep your money at home. Spend it in North Carolina. We have said so before and we repeat it. There are various ways for North Carolinians to keep their money at home and this from the Charlotte Chronicle will indicate one of them:

"The purchase of the Gaston county bonds by the First National Bank of Gastonia, was in effect their purchase by the people of Gaston. The bank carries four hundred thousand dollars deposits. Deposits are the people's money. When part of the deposits is invested in home bonds the people are buying their own bonds."

The taking of Gaston county bonds in Gaston county, means that the annual interest will remain in Gaston. Finally when the bonds mature, the principal will be paid in and remain in Gaston instead of being sent out of the State. Keep your money at home.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—His exceedingly characteristic Thanksgiving proclamation this year is another reminder that, when Theodore Roosevelt chose the political career American public life's gain was the American pulpit's loss. Like his distinguished predecessor, Mr. Cleveland, he was a born preacher.—Hartford Curant.

—Mr. T. M. Emerson, of Wilmington, who was on Tuesday elected president of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, started in the service of the railroad as a clerk in the freight offices at Wilmington at $75 at month. This is another example of what may be accomplished by proper attention to business—Charlotte Observer.

—Republican politicians sit and read Senator Platt's testimony in the insurance case in which he declared he had got, first and last, some $250,000 from the companies for political purposes, and then go out without cracking a smile and tell the people of the beautiful virtues of the party of great moral ideas. But these gentlement are going to have a great "graft" bill to settle at the next election.—Chattanooga Times.

—We spoke a few days ago of a Mecklenburg farmer who owns three hundred bales of cotton, and who is holding it for 15 cents. Yesterday's paper told of the appearance on the Charlotte market of another Mecklenburg farmer as an active cotton buyer. These are indications that the Mecklenburg farmer is more than a farmer—he is a good business man and knows how to make his way in the world.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—Several North Carolina papers are conducting a discussion of the practice which obtains in many municipal courts of letting offenders go scot free if they promise to leave the community, in which they were arrested and tried. That practice is not to be commended. If a man has violated the law he should be punished, not turned loose to go elsewhere and repeat his offense. Those papers which condemn the practice have right on their side. What would be thought of a farmer who caught a fox in his chicken house and took it over to his neighbor's chicken house and turned it loose there? The principle, or lack of principle, is the same.—Columbia Record.

—Mr. Roosevelt, of course, is a great man and he has proved it in many ways, yet it is nauseating at times to see the American people "slopping over" about him. They are putting him higher than Washington and Lincoln, and they are giving him credit, personal credit, for everything. Some of the newspapers are contending that it was due to his greatness and firmness that the political bosses were whipped in the November elections, but if there is any bigger boss than the President we have failed to find any account of him in the newspapers. We can give him credit for all that is due him without running it into the ground. —Raleigh Times.

THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, Nov. 27.—The cotton market was again very active and at times showed great excitement with prices establishing new high records for the season on all months later than January. The close was a few points of the best and steady at a net gain of 23 to 28 points. Sales were estimated at 800,000 bales. The market opened strong at an advance of 26 to 35 points and inside of the first ten minutes all of the active months showed gains of about 33 to 38 points with March selling at 11.88. The advance was due to the excited bulge of Liverpool which was accompanied by reports of a small failure, and where the circular issued by the recent bull leader after the local close of Saturday to the effect that his shorts had been recovered, was evidently regarded as a bullish influence. At the advance here there was very heavy realizing and the market during the Wall street bull interests who had take points from the top with March selling at 11.75. Around this figure leading Wall stret bull interests who had taken no very active part during the early session came to the support of prices and during the afternoon prices were rallied to a new high point for the day and season, with March selling at 11.92 or 17 points up from the lowest level of the morning. The close was off from the best, under realizing, with March around 11.81; Southern spot markets were unchanged to 1-8c higher.

Receipts at the ports today were 54,725 bales against 60,954 last week and 62,445 last year. For the week, estimated, 350,000 bales against 391,090 bales last week and 387,267 last year. The Old Way and the New

Some Important Facts Which May Prove Helpful.

Thirty years ago old-fashioned cod liver oil had to be forced down a patient's throat. Invalids couldn't take it, and children wouldn't. But the doctors prescribed it, and it had to be taken by force. Yet when enough could be taken into the system it was beneficial, for it has ever been the greatest of all tissue builders and general reconstructors known to medicine.

We are now anxious to have every one know that Vinol is a new form of this very old and valuable remedy, cod liver oil. It contains in a concentrated form all the medicinal elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but by a new process it is made without oil or grease, and it is as delicious to the taste as a fresh orange.

Vinol does not upset the stomach like old fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions; its strengthening and healing properties are remarkable, and both doctors and patients are delighted with its action.

Many wonderful cures right here in Wilmington have been effected by its use, and we ask all of our customers to try Vinol on our guarantee to return money every time it fails to make rich, red blood, increase the appetite, cure stomach troubles, give strength and renewed vitality to the aged, run down, tired and debilitated, or cure chronic colds, hacking coughs or bronchitis." —At Morganton work is progressing rapidly on the new mission hospital now being erected opposite Grace church. This hospital is being built under the supervision of Archdeacon Hughson and by means of Northern contributions. When completed it will cost about $3,000 and is expected to be ready for occupancy in a month or two.

—Maxton Scottish-Chief: Col. E. F. McRae left Tuesday morning for the cotton growing counties in Eastern North Carolina, where he will work in the interest of the movement to hold three million bales of Southern cotton. Blanks have been sent to every cotton county in the South, and farmers and business men who have cotton, and who are able to hold it, are pledging themselves not to sell within the next 90 days for less than 15 cents.

—Salisbury correspondence, Nov. 24th: Mr. R. C. Downing, a revenue agent who comes this way often, heard while here to-day that he is indicted for murder in the Duplin county court. He left on the noon north-bound train to answer to the charge. Some time since Mr. Downing was out in Pender county, a revenue officer, J. C. Stancill, accompanying him. While searching for a blockade still they shot Watson Jennington and killed him. It is alleged that the deceased was an innocent man. Mr. Downing will ask for bail on arriving in Duplin.

—Dr. David W. Worth, died at Pilot Mountain Saturday after an illness of about a year. Several months ago he was stricken with blood poison, causby an ingrowing toe-nail and it was thought at that time that he would succumb to the disease. In hopes of saving his life he underwent an operation, and had his leg amputated. This operation lengthened his life for a few months and at times his friends thought that he might get well. Dr. Worth was about 60 years of age and leaves a sorrowing wife and many friends to mourn his death.

—A fratricide occurred near the home of Mr. Robert Wyrick, four miles nothwest of Gibsonville, Guilford county, about 11 o'clock Saturday night, when Lucian B. Honaday was fatally stabbed by his brother, D. Roscoe Hornaday, and lived only fifteen minutes after receiving the wound. A large pocket knife was the weapon used. The Hornadays made their home in Gibsonville and after supper last night they went to Mr. Wyrick's in company with several other young men. After spending an hour or two there the crowd started home, the Hornaday brothers straggling along behind and engaging in a quarrel. Before the crowd proceeded very far they heard the two brothers fighting and rushed back to separate them, but found them both lying on the ground, blood flowing freely from the ugly gash in Lucian's right breast. Roscoe admitted that he killed his brother, but said he did so in self-defense, while Lucian had him down pounding him with a bottle. The wounded man gurgled the words, "Bud has killed me," and then he became unconscious, breathing his last in a short time. A physician was summoned, but arrived too late. Hornaday gave himself up to the chief-of-police of Gibsonville and was taken to jail at Greensboro. Both men are married and are cotton mill operatives.

Book Notices.

"Faulty Diction, or Errors in the English Language and How to Correct Them," is a valuable little book by Thomas H. Russell, editor-in-chief of Webster's Imperial Dictionary. Illustrating the comprehensive treatment that has been given the subject by the author, there are 1017 headings treated in the book, under some of which—"plurals" for instance—over fifty errors that are not at all unusual are to be found illustrated and corrected. It is rarely one's good fortune to become possessed of so valuable a book, and especially one so compact and of as much general interest. It is handsomely bound in embossed Russia leather and will be sent postpaid on receipts of 50c to any address by Geo. W. Ogilvie & Co., Publishers, 169 E. Randolph St., Chicago, Ill. They also publish the same book in cloth binding and will send a copy of it in that style on receipt of 25 cents.

The December number of McClure's Magazine is a candidate for popular favor. It is full of entertainment, and is illustrated in a way that adds to its interest. Among the articles of special current interest is "Railroad Rebates," by Ray Stannard Baker, and Joseph W. Folk (photographic portrait), by William Allen White. However, McClure's has to be seen to be appreciated. Subscription price $1 per annum; 10 cents per copy. Address The S. S. McClure & Co., Fourth avenue and Twenty-third street, New York.

We have before us the Thanksgiving number of The Southern Home Magazine, published at Winston-Salem, N. C. It is a handsome publication and the leading article is a sketch of Gov. Glenn, accompanied by cuts of the North Carolina State capitol and the governor's mansion. The magazine is published monthly, and is sent for 60 cents a year.

The Atlantic Monthly for December is a number of rare worth. It is a literary treat, a notable list of contributors having sent in gems of prose writings and poetry, while all the features of this splendid publication are as complete as usual. The subscription price is $4 per annum; 35 cents per copy. Address Houghton, Mifflin & Co., 4 Park street, Boston, Mass.

CURE YOUR KIDNEYS.

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor, why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a certain cure is offered them?

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use, because it gives to the kidneys the help they need to perform their work.

If you have any, even one, of the sympotoms of knidney diseases, cure yourself now, before diabetes, dropsy or Bright's disease sets in. Read this Wilmington testimony:

B. R. King, the well-known policeman, residing at 706 Wooster street, says: "I had terrible pain in my back which worked around to my side and in my stomach, so bad at times that it laid me up. I used internal medicines and they did not help me. I put on plasters and rubbed with liniment, and none of them helped me at all. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills recommended I got a box of them at Bellamy's drug store. The next day after commencing to use them I noticed relief. Since using two boxes of them I have not had an ache or a pain in my back. It is with pleasnre that I add my name to those endorsing the claims made for this remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New oYrk, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Tickets to Foot-Ball Game in Norfolk, Va.

There seems to be some impression that grand-stand tickets to above game, which are on sale at our Charlotte, Wilmington, Raleigh, Durham and Henderson offices, will not be sold to people who patronize the Seaboard Air Line to Norfolk. This is a mistake, as the tickets will be sold to any one. We simply selling them in North Carolina for the Lafayette Field Association.

These tickets will be returned to Norfolk on the 20th and it is certainly to the interest of those who expect to attend the game, to purchase their tickets prior to this time, as the indications point to a record-breaking crowd and those who delay getting seats will be put to considerable trouble in getting them if they wait until arrival at Norfolk.

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, it us permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Man's Unreasonableness

is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr. of the "Republican," of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife, for female trouble, "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick, she could hardly leave her bed, and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters, she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy, druggist, price 50c. **

Advice to Merchants and Farmers

Do you know when you buy any grade of Guano? It's simply an adulteration, a small per cent of which is blood and bone, which is the superior ingredient, but when you purchase FISH SCRAP, you get nothing but pure FLESH, BLOOD & BONE. The above assertion we guarantee and can prove. Therefore FISH SCRAP has no equal as a Fertilizer. We are Sole Agents for the Ocean Fisheries Co., who manufacture the finest article of FISH SCRAP known. Prices cheerfully given on application.

INSUBORDINATE STUDENTS.

Two Charlote Boys Among Nine V. M. I. Cadets Dismissed.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Lexington, Va., Nov. 27.—Nine cadets were dismissed from the Virginia Military Institute today for insubordination. The specific charge was wilful absence from inspection Saturday afternoon for the purpose of forcing their dismissal. These nine were of the "oath-bound thirteen" who persistently refused to apolgize for alleged insubordinate conduct in making a communication complaining of fare at the mess hall, accompanied by a threat to leave the school. The other members of the class of one hundred apolgized but the thirteen would not. The entire class was pledged to leave if any should be dismissed. In order to relieve this situation and save their classmates, the nine invited expulsion.

Following are the names of the dismissed Cadets Brevard, Charlotte, N. C.; W. M. Bailey, Gainesville, Tex.; W. H. Cottam, New Orleans, La.; Marcellus Green, Jackson, Miss.; A. T. Riddick, Jr., Suffolk, Va.; G. S. Jones-Austin, Tex.; J. Robertson, Charlotte, N. C.; W. C. Smith, Wheeling, W. Va.; W. H. Verdin, Jackson, Miss.

SIXTEEN PERISH IN AWFUL WRECK

PASSENGERS INCINERATED

Wreck Caught Fire and There Was No Means of Stopping Flames—Engineer Was Heedless of Signals—Train Consumed.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Lincoln, Mass., Nov. 27.—The most disastrous railroad wreck in this State for many years occurred at 8:15 o'clock Sunday night at Baker's station, a mile and a half west of Lincoln, on the main line of the Fitchburg division of the Boston & Maine Railroad. The regular Sunday express, which left Boston at 7:45 o'clock for Montreal via the Rutland system, crashed into the rear of a local train which started from Boston at 7:15 for point on the main line and the Marlboro branch.

The wreckage caught fire and some of the passengers were incinerated. Few persons live in the vicinity of Baker's Bridge station and no fire department was available, so that the flames practically burned themselves out. Uninjured passengers and a number of train hands, assisted by villagers, went to the aid of the injured and many persons were rescued.

A special train with doctors was sent from Boston at 9:35 o'clock Sunday night and reached here in half an hour. Many doctors from Waltham and other places in this section were sent to the scene in carriages and by other trains.

After a day spent by wrecking crews in clearing away the remaining traces of last night's disaster, and after an investigation by the railroad officials, Sate authorities and the newspapers, it was practically settled tonight that sixteen persons lost their lives. Twelve were seriously injured and a score cut and bruised.

Investigation by the railroad officials began immediately after the accident last night. Today inspectors representing the State railroad commisisoners made a separate examination and on Wednesday Judge John S. Keyes, of Concord, will head an inquest.

A revision of the list of dead resulted in the elimination of three who were supposed to have lost their lives.

Engineer Lyons, who is not severely injured, reached his home in Charleston early tonight. The engineer is alleged to have admitted seeing some of the signals used for the protection of the accommodation train.

Fuses, such as are used by brakemen to signal approaching trains have been found on the track over which the train that caused the wreck passed.

"All of the testimony as yet secured shows with positive clearness that the Montreal Express passed by at least two and probably three spacing block signal lights and three red fire torches without paying the slightest attention to them. I can only form the opinion that there was, in the case, some suspension of mechanical brain action in failing to note these numerous danger and cautionary signals which was the sole cause of the accident."

MRS. GRISSOM CANNOT SURVIVE.

Sad Condition of North Carolina Woman, who Shot Herself.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 26.—Mrs. G. Grissom, wife of an official of the Leaksville Woolen Mills, near Spray, N. C., attempted suicide in Farragut Park, the heart of the fashionable quarter of Washington, by shooting herself in the left breast and abdomen Saturday. It is stated that she had separated from her husband. A dispatch from Greensboro, N. C., says that her father-in-law, Dr. Grissom, was superintendent of the North Carolina Insane Asylum for twenty-five years.

Washington, Nov. 27.—No change is reported in the condition of Mrs. G. Grissom, the young woman who attempted suicide in Farragut Park Saturday. The husband of the woman arrived here this morning and went at once to the hospital. The physicians will make no predictions as to the possibility of the recovery of the woman. The hospital officials to-night said Mrs. Grissom's condition was slightly worse and grave fears are felt for her recovery. Mr. Grissom after spending about an hour beside the bed of his suffering wife, assured her that every possible care would be shown her, said he came to Washington to see that Mrs. Grissom received the proper medical attention, and that he did not care to discuss other matters. The husband called at the hospital several time in the afternoon and twice in the evening.

ANOTHER MOURNFUL PARADE.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, Nov. 27.—Friends, relatives and sons and daughters of the Odessa Jews, paraded in the Eastside Ghetto here to-day, in a black draped throng which numbered hundreds and whose members were nearly all New York Jewish immigrants from Odessa. Three flags headed the procession, one an immense black banner, at its side the flag of Zion and between them the Stars and Stripes. The tiny shops of the Ghetto streets through which the parade passed each contained at least one bit of black hung in mourning on the door and some of them were almost covered with crape. A singing band of women who accompanied the procession stopped at Bivington Street synagogue, and with their followers kneeling in the street, they mounted the steps of the synagogue chanting lamentations for the dead in Odessa. A band playing dirges led the parade to great Central Palace in Clinton street, where a meeting of protest was held.

THE COURT MARTIAL AT ANNAPOLIS

Body of Branch Exhumed and Autopsy Held—Evidence Favorable to Midshipman Meriwether.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 27.—No great progress was made today in the trial by court-martial of Midshipman Minor Meriwether on charges that embrace one of manslaughter in connection with the death of Midshipman James R. Branch, Jr., after a fist fight between him and Midshipman Meriwether. The opening of the court was delayed by the absence of Captain Richard Wainwright and the official stenographer, who, having spent Sunday out of town, missed their trains this morning. Perhaps the most important developments of the day were the decision of counsel to put Midshipman Meriwether on the stand in his own defence and the appearance of Dr. L. W. Glazebrook, of Washington, in the role of advisor to Meriwether's counsel. Most of the testimony offered today was by midshipmen and related to details of the fight and events that led thereto.

Counsel for the defense offered Midshipman W. W. Bradley, of the second class, to testify to circumstances to show that Branch had misused his official position when on duty to make unjust reports against Meriwether. An objection to this evidence was entered by the judge-advocate. The court decided that such testimony could be given provided it was shown that circumstances had come to Meriwether's notice previous to the fight.

Midshipman Bradley then said that he had been detailed for duty with Branch shortly before the fight. Branch had told him that they must try to get a report against "that man, Meriwether."

When on duty Branch had tried to induce the witness to make a report against Meriwether, which he (Bradley), did not think was justified, and which he refused to make. Branch had also told him about finding the civilian clothes in the suit case but had said he had found that they did not belong to Meriwether.

Midshipman Leigh Noyes testified that he had heard of the proposed report from a midshipman and had told Branch that he had no right to make it if the inspection which he made was not in the line of duty. Noyes, who was the time-keeper in the fight, testified that Branch and Meriwether had fallen together in clinches three times. Branch had fallen in three other instances and two of the falls had been hard. He had always risen promptly and did not appear to be stunned.

Midshipman A. W. Ficht, who refereed he fight, was re-called and testified as to their falls during its course. His testimony on that point was ubstantially the same as that of Noyes. He also brought out the fact that Branch had not received much punishment after the seventh round, when Meriwether offered to stop.

During the afternoon session, Fitch and Noyes were recalled and again went over their testimony as to certain incidents in the fight. They said that twice, it was thought, Branch had hit his head against the floor. Lieutenant Commander Decker testified that floors in Bancroft Hall, where the fight was held, have a concreate base, then a layer of rough boards and then the smooth surface boards.

Midshipman Ralph Yeager, who was Meriwether's second, said the latter had slipped in the fifteenth round, spraining his ankle, and that he was almost disabled thereby but said he could continue the fight, though he could do little to defend himself. Midshipman Hugo W. Culler, a fourth class man, testified that he had loaned the civilian clothes that were found by Branch to Meriwether during the Summer, and that on the day they were found in the closet Branch had told him he had better go get them. He had then gone to the closet and recovered the clothing.

Midshipman Branch's body was disinterred on Sunday and the autopsy was held will settle some disputed points.

"Today Dr. L. W. Glazebrook, of Washington, who was present at the autopsy, became adviser to counsel for the defense and consulted with them during the proceedings.

The court will meet on Thursday (Thanksgiving), unless an unexpected order to the contrary is received from the Secretary of the Navy. Witnesses may be called in rebuttal but the probability is that the court will finish its work by Friday.

COTTON MARKET EXCITED.

New High Record for Season on New York Exchange.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

New York, Nov. 27.—New high records for the season were made at the opening of the cotton market here today with trading sensationally active and excited. The movement was caused by a circular issued by the former bear leader on Saturday to the effect that he had covered his short contracts and also by the big advance in Liverpool where a small failure was announced. The first prices here were 26 to 35 points higher with March selling at 11.88 or 11 points above the previous record. Realizing was exceedingly heavy at the early advance and during the middle session prices eased off about 12 or 13 points from the best with March selling at 11.75. Sentiment remained of a bullish average and the leading bulls buying liberally, the market firmed up in the afternoon with March selling at 11.97 or 37 points net higher. The closing was off from the best under renewed profit-taking but the tone was steady at a net advance of 23 to 28 points. The sales of the day were estimated at 800,000 bales.

New Orleans, Nov. 27.—As a result of a circular of the former New York bear leader sent here on Saturday, the local cotton market opentoday with a spurt upward of from 15 to 20 points. The effect was to send all the months above 12c. Longs saw in the prices an excellent opportunity to take profits and the result was a reaction. By 11 o'clock there were reactions that left the market only above five points above the close of Saturday. At the 12 o'clock call December was 10 up, January 12, March 21 and May was 13 up with a strong undertone noticeable.

THE PROBING OF INSURANCE

THEY AMOUNTED TO $700,000

They Were Evidently Loaned to Help Bank Make alse Tax Returns—Vice President Perkins Makes Explanations.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, Nov. 27.—One of the most interesting features of the life insurance investigation developed only few minutes before the adjournment of the Armstrong committee today when Theodore F. Banta, cashier of the New York Life Insurance Company, testified that about the beginning of 1901, Edmund D. Randolph, treasurer of the company, opened the vaults of the company, removed New York City stock valued at $700,000 and put a check of the Central National Bank for $700,000 in its place. Mr. Banta said he helped to open the vaults at the order of Mr. Randolph and that he supposed Mr. Randolph acted for the finance committee. The stock was kept out for a few days and was then returned and the check withdrawn. The transaction was not recorded on the books of the company so far as Mr. Banta knew. The effect of the operation would be that any one having that stock would have $700,000 worth of non-taxable property at the end of the year. Mr. Banta did not know who received the stock. Mr. Randolph is expected to be one of the witnesses tomorrow.

George W. Perkins, vice president of the New York Life Insurance Company, and a member of the firm of the J. P. Morgan & Company, bankers, today described to the committee the transaction which resulted in his receipt of $40,193 from Kidder, Peabody & Co., of Boston, as half the profits of the sale of $2,000,000 worth of bonds of the Mexican Central Railroad Company. Milton W. Mattison, a book-keeper of the New York Life Insurance Company, had previously testified that $930,000 of the life insurance company's money was used in the transaction and that Mr. Perkins got the profit. Mr. Perkins said today that he went into the transactions for the Nylic fund which is owned by the agents of the New York Life Insurance Company and that he invested the profits for that fund. The life insurance company, he said, profited in the extent of the five per cent. interest on the loan of $930,000. He stated that the company had no right to the $40,193 profits.

Mr. Perkins said also that J. P. Morgan & Co., had taken up notes of Andrew Hamilton and E. E. McCall, formerly justice of the New York State Supreme Court, amounting to $56,310 at the request of President John A. McCall, of the New York Life Insurance Company, and that the amount with interest was paid to Andrew Hamilton, by the New York Life Insurance Company for the proceeds of a syndicate in United Steel Corporation stock. President John A. McCall told the committee today that he had told the Central National Bank and E. E. McCall that Hamilton was good for $50,000 and they had then taken Hamilton's notes. President McCall said the New York Life Insurance Company owed Hamilton the $56,310 and took the syndicate profits to pay him. The result was that the payment did not appear on the books of the company. The reason was that he wanted to keep Hamilton's expenses down.

Much evidence was given by both Mr. Perkins and President McCall about the New York Security and Trust Company's participation in the United States Steel Corporation syndicate to the extent of $3,250,000, having the deposits of the New York Life Insurance Company for about that amount.

The New York Life Insurance Company got 25 per cent. of the profits and Mr. Perkins contended that it was a safe and profitable venture.

"I never gave Senator Platt a dollar in my life for the New York Life Insurance Company," declared Mr. McCall in reply to a question. Mr. McCall did not know of any payment by the New York life to any State campaign fund.

Mr. McCall said one of Hamilton's notes may have been a campaign contribution. His brother, E. E. McCall, was elected Supreme Court Justice in 1902, but the New York Life never contributed to his campaign expenses.

"Who have solicited campaign contributions from you?"

"I had rather not tell. I have been very much but not by members of the Legislature nor State officials.

Senator Cox asked President McCall if he believed the State should allow the insurance companies to engage in such a syndicate transaction as that of the United States Steel Company.

Mr. McCall replied that he did not believe the insurance companies should engage in speculation. He thought they were a source of evil. "The more you take away the speculative character of the insurance company the better," said he.

Asked if he believed insurance companies should own trust companies stock which could make such investments, he said he did not think the New York Life Insurance Company should own the stocks of trust companies.

Mrs. Estelle Townsend Smith, who was recently sentenced to five years imprisonment for whipping her little boy to death in Manchester, Va., yesterday through counsel appealed to the Supreme Court on the ground that the Judge in her case refused to allow an expert physician to examine her privately to ascertain her mental and physical condition, insisting that if any examination at all were made it should be in the presence of the jail physicians. She stakes all her chances on this one plea.

The Louisville (Ky.) Evening Times announces the engagement of Thomas Shevlin, captain of the Yale football team, to Miss Elizabeth Sherley, of Louisville. Miss Sherley, is the daughter of Mrs. Brannin Sherley, and is one of the most beautiful of Kentucky women. Mr. Shevlin lives in Minneapolis, Minn.

OFFICERS KILLED BY ODESSA MUTINEERS

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Odessa, Nov. 27.—Governor General Kaulbers, has received he following from Vice Admiral Chounkin commanding the Black sea fleet:

"The mutineers left the Kniaz Potemkine today and the vessel is now in my hands. The sailors, together with the soldiers of the Brese regiment who mutinied have shut themselves in the Lazaroff barracks with some guns. When fresh troops arrive I shall attack, though I fear the artillerymen may join the mutiners. A very serious state of affairs prevails to-day. Several officers have been killed."

AWFUL ATROCITIES AT ODESSA

Old Men, Children and Youths Mutilated By Fiends.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Bristol, Va., Nov. 27.—At a mass meeting of citizens held here tonight at the opera house to protest against the massacre of the Jews in Russia, a letter received by one of the Jewish merchants of the city from a brother in Odessa was read. It is dated Odessa, October 24, and is, in part, as follows:

"I saw them catch an old Jewish man with gray hair and long beard. They robbed him, cut his head from his shoulders, kicked his body into the street and then took his head and placed it on a long pole, while every one was shouting, hooray.

"Right at that time a young man dressed in the uniform of a high college scholar, ran up and was protesting against this barbarism and four or five Russians jumped on him, knocked him down, and had a great big knife, stabbing him in the stomach and split him open and there was a lot of macaroni lying on the street which came from the grocery store, and while still alive they tore out his entrails and stuffed him full of this macaroni and left him there; and they were just running from one house to another breaking windows.

"Oh! God! What I saw in that barn makes me shudder. I think I can hardly write you. We found in the barn, eight children, the oldest of which was not eight years, old, hung on one long rope and left swinging there."

MAKES A SENSATION.

Mrs. Chadwick Will Go On Stand and Tell All She Knows.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 27.—Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick has expressed a desire to again go on the stand in the bankruptcy proceedings against her and today wrote a letter to Referee Arrington, of the Federal bankruptcy court, requesting him to set a date for reopening her case. Mrs. Chadwick declares that, if an opportunity is again given her to go on the stand, she will tell without reservation all the facts concerning her financial dealings.

"It has been repeatedly stated," said Mrs. Chadwick, "that I borrowed more than $3,000,000. Whether or not this is true will be shown when I again take the stand in the bankruptcy court.

"There are a number of financiers who benefitted very largely through their dealings with me. If I am to be punished it is no more than right that some of those men should suffer with me, for if there was any violation of the law they are surely as guilty as I am."
